

UK AML TRIAL TEAM OF THE YEAR AWARD

This award is an initiative of the UK AML Steering Committee and is designed to recognise the hard work of so many UK haematology centres in recruiting patients to clinical trials and other linked initiatives aimed at improving outcomes for patients with AML.

Honourable Mentions:

Manchester Royal Infirmary - outstanding recruitment to transplant trials.

Bristol Haematology and Oncology Centre University Hospitals of Bristol and Weston NHS Trust - excellent PPI, national leadership of data registry

Queen Elizabeth Hospital Birmingham - excellent recruitment to transplant trials

Distinguished Runner's Up:

Kings College Hospital - excellent recruitment to early phase and transplant trials, very strong PPI, national AML trial leadership

Glan Clwyd Hospital – North Wales for very strong trials team, impressive recruitment, outstanding PPI

WINNER

The Christie NHS Foundation Trust

The application demonstrated distinguishing features: excellent recruitment to early phase trials/ Uk leadership of non-intensive and relapsed studies/strong community engagement